

Norway is full of interesting and fun facts that make it unique.

For example, it is home to some of the longest and deepest fjords in the world, carved by glaciers thousands of years ago.

The country also experiences the Midnight Sun in summer, where the sun does not set for weeks in the northern regions.

Norwegians have a strong outdoor culture and enjoy activities like hiking, skiing, and camping.

There is even a concept called "friluftsliv," which means open-air living.

Additionally, Norway has one of the world's largest sovereign wealth funds, built from its oil revenues.

Another fun fact is that Norwegians consume a lot of frozen pizza, making it surprisingly popular.

The country is also known for its trolls in folklore, which are mythical creatures featured in many traditional stories.